Wheat Damaged by Heavy Rain Tuesday

Lack of Cars Is Season Handicap

Much Wheat Piled on Ground Both on Farms and at the Elevators

Harvest is about 70% complete in Randall county.

Wheat combining was delayed by rain Saturday night, when .48 of an inch fell in Canyon. Many sections of the county received a larger amount of moisture.

The biggest and most destructive rain of the year fell Tuesday night. The total rain in Canyon was 3.40 inches. Accompanied by a high wind, wheat which had not been cut was twisted and smashed to the ground. With the growth of weeds and grass brought by previous rains, this unharvested wheat will be a real problem. Labor costs will be increased on account of this storm.

It was believed yesterday that fully 50% of the wheat which was standing in the fields will be lost because of this storm. If this per cent holds true, the total yield for the county will be cut about 15%.

The northwest part of the county had more standing wheat before the rain than any other section of the county. Wheat was later in that section than in the balance of the county.

According to reports yesterday, barley was hit harder than any other grain crop. Some fields of barley are reported to be flat on the ground owing to the fact that the grain was much heavier.

Elevators over the Panhandle have been piling wheat on the ground because of the lack of railroad cars. It was reported yesterday that approximately 50 carloads of wheat were on the ground in Canyon and Umbarger. The damage to this wheat will be small as compared to wheat which farmers had piled on the ground, since the protection at the elevators is much better.

Railroad cars continue to be the bottleneck in handling wheat. Terminals have been unable to unload cars as rapidly as shipments were received and release cars for return to the wheat belt. Trucks have been used to haul to terminals, but Panhandle storage was filled by Tuesday so that practice was stopped.

The labor situation has been well taken care of through the office of County Agent W. H. Upchurch. Practically every demand for labor has been met, with the exception of drifters who have been seeking higher wages than the farmers were justified in paying for harvest hands.

Several commercial combines are still in the county. However, as farmers finish their own wheat they have been moving in to assist their neighbors who are behind with their harvest.

Notice was received Tuesday of the increase in loan values on wheat. Loans are now authorized at $1.35 per bushel. The first loans were completed at the County Agent's office Tuesday. With the increase in loan value many farmers are expected to put their wheat in this loan.

Lt. Brewster Reported Lost On D-Day

Lt. Howard C. Brewster, pilot of a transport glider, is reported as missing in action since June 6, according to a telegram from the War Department to his wife, the former Kate Donnell.

Lt. Brewster is a graduate of Louisiana Tech, and received his wings, November, 1942. He received part of his training at Dalhart Air Base. It was while he was stationed there that he met and married Mrs. Brewster, who was a teacher in the Dalhart Schools.

Lt. Brewster has been in service for three years. He was Glider Operations Officer for the 437th Troop Carrier Group and has been stationed at some post in England for for the past six months.

John A. Gillis became president of the Canyon Lions Club July 1st and presided over the weekly session of the club Tuesday. He is head of the Industrial Arts Department of West Texas State.

Lt. Glen Persons Is Wounded in the Invasion

Tuesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. Grady Persons received word from the War Department that their son, Lieut. Glen Persons, had been wounded in the invasion.

On Saturday a letter from Lieut. Persons revealed that his injury was not so serious as first reported. His right leg was injured, but he was able to be walking when he wrote and thought that he would soon be able to back on the line.

Lieut. Persons is in Company "K" with the 120th Infantry.

Mrs. Glen Person and young son, Grady Pierce, who has never seen his father, are in the Grady Persons home.

L. T. Penick At Home of Parents After Accident

L. T. Penick is resting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Penick, following the accident in June when his wife was killed and Mr. Penick received a broken leg and bad head wound.

He did not become rational for more than three weeks after the accident, so bad was his head injured. He was not told of his wife's death until he was ready to leave the hospital. He will be in bed for about three months until his leg recovers from the break.

Dr. H. A. Brown Is Re-elected

Dr. H. A. Brown has just returned from Austin where he held a state Clinical Convention of the American Naturopathic Association of Texas, Inc.

Dr. Brown has been president of the State Association for two years and was re-elected for the next two years to serve in this capacity, he is also vice-president of the National Association.

He reports a very large attendance, especially from other states, and a very great interest in the research work that is being accomplished, due to the recent endowment of $1,100,000 by Mr. Bernard Baruch for Physio-Therapy Research and Teaching.

Roosevelt Will Run for 4th Term

Announcement Was Made Tuesday to Press; Fate of Wallace Is in the Balances

President Roosevelt announced Tuesday that he will be willing to accept the nomination for the presidency on the Democratic ticket for a fourth term. He finally gave the announcement at his press conference after being pressed for months by the reporters to give his reaction to the political situation.

The President has a sufficient number of votes to assure his nomination on the first ballot. The National Democratic Convention meets next Wednesday in Chicago.

Four years ago the President insisted on the nomination of Henry A. Wallace for vice president. Roosevelt refused to accept the nomination for a third term until the convention assured him of the nomination of Wallace. Since that time war has been declared on Wallace by Democratic leaders over the nation. Even the President was forced to spank Wallace and removed some of his political powers.

Wallace is reported to have told the President before going to China that he would not insist on being a candidate for re-election if this did not meet the approval of the Chief.

The announcement of the President nine days before the opening of the convention that he was willing to run for re-election, without reference to the nominee for vice president, indicates that he is willing to leave the nomination of the candidate for vice president up to the convention.

The acceptance of the President, and the seeming removal of Wallace, will solve the revolt of Southern Democrats who insisted that they would not accept Wallace.

Congressman Sam Rayburn is indicated as the leading contender for vice president. In the event of his election he would be the second Texan who moved from Speaker of the House to Vice President, John Nance Garner having been so honored in the election of Roosevelt for the first term.

Primary Will Be Held July 22 at the Legion Hall

There will be only one voting place in Canyon for Precinct No. 1. This will be at the American Legion Hall.

In years past Canyon has had two, three and sometimes four voting places. Experience shows that one election crew can handle the job almost as rapidly as two or three.

Dr. D. A. Shirley is judge of this precinct.

Absentee ballots are counted at three o'clock in the afternoon, therefore, voters are asked not to come to the polls at that exact hour. Come either before three o'clock, or a little after three.

However, all voters are urged to cast their ballots early Saturday, July 22, in order that counting may start as quickly as possible, and the election crew will not be kept on the job so late at night.

Price for Openig Price for Opening Graves Is Set By

The price of a child's grave was set at $10; standard adult graves at $12.50; and graves with vaults at $15.

Due to the fact that extra labor is so hard to find, the court raised the salary of T. W. Henderson, custodian, from $90 to $100 per month.

Directors Historical Society Met Monday

Enthusiastic Group of Men From All Counties of the Plains Met at Museum

New directors of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society met Monday afternoon at the museum building to organize under the provisions of the new constitution which was adopted at the annual business session of the Society in May. More than 50 directors were present, representing every county in the Panhandle. The meeting was one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever held by the Society.

Five directors were elected to serve on the executive committee. Those elected from the group were: John McCarty of Amarillo; Floyd Studer of Amarillo; H. C. Pipkin of Amarillo; J. Evetts Haley of Spearman; John O. Colquitt of Dalhart.

Four members of the executive committee who were named at the annual meeting in May are: J. D. Hamlin of Farwell, president; W. T. Coble of Amarillo, 1st vice president; Dr. J. A. Hill of Canyon, 2nd vice president; Dr. L. F. Sheffy of Canyon, secretary.

Dr. Hill presided in the absence of Judge Hamlin, outlining the work which had been set out for the new directors.

Dr. Sheffy gave a brief outline of the history of the organization since it was started in 1921. He divided the history of the organization into three periods: 1921-28, organization period, when J. Evetts Haley was field secretary. Haley sold the society to the people of this area, collected much valuable material for the museum, interviewed hundreds of pioneers—many of whom have now passed on.

The second period ran from 1828-1937, when the building was underway. Excavation was started on September 1, 1932 after the legislature had appropriated $25,000 with the provision that citizens of the Panhandle match this amount. The first unit was opened in April 1933. Hundreds of persons made cash contributions to the building. In 1936 the Texas Centennial added $25,000 to the building fund with which the basement of the second unit was started.

The third period ran from 1937-1944, which is designated as the WPA period. Thousands of dollars were given the museum by the federal government for many projects which were put on in securing specimens; preparing them for display; and building display cases. The government bought and put on the

Purchase after July 8, through July 31, will apply on this amount lacking on E Bond quota as of July 8	$ 26,537.50

While this report is made to include bond purchases and allocations up to the date the drive was officially scheduled to run—July 8th, additional sales of E Bonds on July 10th and 11th totalling $3,018.75 have been made; and it is our understanding that all subscriptions for Series E, F and G savings bonds and Series C savings Notes as purchased between June 1 and July 31, 1944, will be credited to the drive.

Final report will be made on the drive at the end of the month when we are advised by the State Headquarters office as to the total amount of sales and credits given this county for the Fifth War Loan Drive. All citizens of Randall County who have not bought E Bonds during the campaign are asked to do so before the end of the month.

Candidates Have Chance to Greet Voters of County

The first primary will be held on July 22.

The News will carry much political news in its issue of July 20 in order that the voters of Randall county may go to the polls informed as to State and local candidates.

Many candidates have expressed a desire to send messages to the voters of Randall county before the primary, and will therefore use this issue of the Canyon News. This edition will go to all poll tax payers of Randall county, and will therefore be a splendid opportunity for the candidates to reach the voters before election.

Candidates wishing advertisements in this issue are cordially invited to have their copy in the News office on or before Monday, July 17.

Postal Receipts For Canyon Show Annual Increase

The Canyon postoffice enjoyed a large increase in business during the past year, according to the annual report of Guy Harp, postmaster, for the fiscal year ending June 30.

The total business for stamps and postage amounted to $26,430.

There was an increase of 38% in the general business of the office. Stamp sales showed an increase of 16% over the previous year.

Commencement Will Be Held July 18 at West Texas State

The Summer Commencement program at West Texas State College will be held on Tuesday, July 18 instead of Thursday, July 20 as had been announced and planned. The Commencement speaker, Dr. Law Sone, President of Texas Wesleyan College and Dr. J. A. Hill have both been summoned to a meeting of all college presidents of Texas to participate in state-wide plans for colleges in the post war period. Both considered this meeting so important that it must not be missed.

The Commencement program will be held in the main auditorium at 8:30 and all townspeople and other friends of the college and of members of the class are invited to attend.

Hundreds of Birds Are Killed by the Rain Tuesday Nite

English sparrows by the hundreds were killed by the heavy rain Tuesday night.

Under practically every tree in Canyon dead sparrows by the scores were found Wednesday morning.

There was an unusually large number of sparrows in Canyon, and killing a few thousand did not seem to affect the population of this pest.

Pfc. and Mrs. C. N. Tippery left Thursday for Detroit, Michigan, to spend his ten day furlough with his mother.

Football Will Begin at W. T.

Coach Gus Miller Urging Prospective Players to Attend 2nd Period for Summer

Coach Gus Miller is making no predictions about the success of football at West Texas State this fall.

The college is handicapped in getting football started this fall by the vacation period taken from athletics last year, and the further fact that spring training was not held this year.

Colleges which carried on their athletic program last year have a group of men with which to start the season. They had spring practice, which holds the group of men together for the start of the new year.

Coach Miller states that in the absence of spring practice, he is calling on all prospective football men to start the second period of summer school at West Texas State on July 24. He hopes to have a good sized squad of men here for practice during the second period.

Fall training will start on Sept. 5. Coach Miller has a tough schedule for the Buffaloes this fall. He will have a number of 4F men to start as a foundation for the team. Just how many men he will be able to to fall training is yet problematical. One thing is certain, states the Coach, he will have more experienced college men for football than for basketball. When basketball gets underway, it will be with a strictly high school group of men. Several athletes upon whom he was counting have joined the navy and will not be here this fall.

Religious Census To Be Taken Monday

Churches of Canyon Join In Making a Complete Religious Survey of Canyon

Pastors and workers from six of Canyon's churches will cooperate next Monday evening in taking a religious census of Canyon.

Pastors are Rev. C. C. Armstrong of the Methodist Church; Dr. Roy L. Johnson of the Baptist; Rev. Joseph Findley of the Christian; Raymond Whittington, Minister of the Church of Christ; Rev. Robert W. Jones of the Presbyterian; and Rev. J. W. Phelps of the Assembly of God.

The town has been divided into districts with a captain over each and these captains will be assisted by dozens of teams to be provided by the various churches. District captains are Lee L. Johnson, Gus Miller, C. A. Murray, James Cole, A. B. Holt, and W. W. Nicklaus.

All workers are to bring a sandwich supper to the Methodist church dining room, Monday, July 17, at 6:30, and after instructions and assignment of team-territory, distribution of supplies, etc., the workers will go afield and try to gather the information in one evening.

Cooperation of the citizens is earnestly asked, for only by getting this information can the religious leaders of Canyon plan intelligently to provide for the religious needs of the community. Surely every citizen is interested in doing everything possible to make Canyon the kind of little city it ought to be. This is a step in the right direction and you can help.

Ceiling Prices on Cars Effective Check Dealers

"Used car ceiling prices will serve the intended purpose of keeping our transportation system operating during the present crisis if both dealer and consumer can realize the importance of cooperation regarding the price regulation," say OPA officials.

Pointing out that cooperation comes through understanding the working details of the regulation, local boards will make an extensive survey of all used car dealers sometime during the week of July 12-19. The purpose of the survey is to make sure that all dealers have received copies of the regulation, to answer any questions pertaining to the regulation, and to see if they understand the provision that all cars must bear the official price tag. Proper tagging is one of the most important parts of the regulation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hayden, Miss Crystelle Hayden, and Miss Evelyn Williams of Plainview spent Sunday with their daughter and sister, Mrs. W. M. Thompson and family.

The big question that will confront the United Nations at the peace table will be the fate of Germany. Goebbels made it clear to the German people only this week that they must keep on fighting as defeat now would make it impossible for Germany to start another war within another quarter century. That indicates the thought of the German military leaders. If left to Stalin, he will pretty well solve the problem of Germany. He has indicated that he intends holding all German prisoners and forcing them to rebuild the destruction which they have wrought in Russia. Stalin is realistic. He knows that Hitler will keep his war machinery moving by slave labor imported from conquered nations. So why not use German prison labor—or slave labor, to be more realistic—and make the Germans repair the destruction which they have ruthlessly caused in conquered nations? Of course the United Nations will attempt to collect damages from Germany, but based on the experience of 25 years ago it would take a standing army of millions of men to see to it that the Germans paid for all this damage.

Two years ago it was predicted by President Walton, then in charge of A. & M. College, that the federal government was seeking to control colleges of the nation. This prediction has come true, so far as A. & M. is concerned. The bureaucrats are attempting to force the college to employ men of their liking in the extension department. Naturally A. & M. is more vulnerable to the bureaucrats than any other Texas college since it has more work under federal jurisdiction. But the start has been made, and if we have another four years of Roosevelt you will see all colleges of the land more or less dominated by the bureaucrats. Thousands of young men will be sent to college under the veteran law. The federal government will see to it that the colleges which cooperate with the bureaucrats get the students. Those colleges which do not play ball—so to speak—may find themselves left out of the veteran program.

The need of a strong alliance of nations—call it what you please— is shown in the case of China. Seven years ago Japan invaded China, and has carried on the war ever since. That was the beginning of World War II. Had the League of Nations been functioning at that time, Japanese aggression could have been stopped with an iron hand. But the United States blocked the usefulness of the League of Nations, and we are paying for another war, both with the blood of thousands of fine young men and billions of hard earned money. What about the future? Let President Roosevelt and Governor Dewey tell their views without stuttering, or without high sounding words which mean nothing. The people of the United States do not want another war in another 25 years, which we shall have unless a lasting peace is written and enforced at the end of World War II.

Randall county is over the top again. The 5th War Loan Drive exceeded the quota. The volume of E Bonds did not reach the quota, but all bonds sold during July count on this quota. Therefore, those who have not bought E Bonds should do so before the end of July in order to make this quota. The fine thing about this campaign is that no high pressure methods were used. No movie stars were imported to sell bonds; no freak stunts were employed. The citizens put their money in bonds to back up the 1,000 Randall county men who are offering their lives to their country. Congratulations to all people of Randall county who have bought bonds. Let everyone continue buying bonds every month. Let's end this war as quickly as possible by continuing to furnish our fighting men all of the munitions and supplies that they need.

There is a lot of talk about the Texas electors bolting the ticket unless the National Democratic convention does as the Texas delegates wish. We hardly believe this possible. One state cannot swing the other 47 states. However, the electoral college is another old broken down procedure of government which should be changed. Instead of voting for electors in the general election, you should be allowed to vote directly for President and Vice President and your vote registered this way. Maybe we shall get around to make this needed chage some year.

Jesse Jones has rebuked both the regular and the rump conventions recently held in Austin. Probably he is more than half right in this rebuke. But the fact remains that Jesse is trying to carry water on both shoulders. He was forced to rebuke the regular Democrats, whether against his will or not, after Jones received a rebuke from the President on the Texas situation. Jesse's nephew heads the Democratic party of Texas. Maybe Jesse's job depends upon how his nephew and the Democrats of Texas act during the coming campaign. Jesse Jones likes his job in Washington. He handles billions of dollars, and there is nothing that Jesse likes better than to handle money. However, he differs materially with the President as to public money. The President likes to throw it to the four winds, but Jesse demands collateral on his loans, and usually is able to collect. The word will be out pretty soon as to just how much punishment will be meted out to the Democrats of Texas for daring to oppose the President. We shall see what we shall see.

July 19 will soon be here. The Democratic National convention will open in Chicago. At that time the President must decide which delegation from Texas will be seated; he must say definitely whether or not he will run for a fourth term; and he must name his candidate for vice president if he runs. There is little doubt about his accepting the nomination, unless he believes that the war will be over before November. If he believes that Hitler will be whipped by that time, chances are Roosevelt will not run. Hitler may, therefore, be the man who will decide the political fate of Franklin D. Roosevelt. As to the Texas delegation, whether the regular delegation is seated or not, it seems to be an assured fact that it has accomplished what it set out to do—block the nomination of Henry A. Wallace. Unless trained reporters in the capital are badly mistaken Wallace is out and the President will select a candidate favorable to the revolting Democrats of the South.

It is gradually being developed that both Dewey and Roosevelt are objectionable and distasteful to the leaders of their parties. Roosevelt has alienated the leaders of his party by his ruthless one-man administration in which the leaders are snubbed. Roosevelt looks to the rank and file of his party for support, and dishes out billions of dollars to the laboring men of the nation to gain their respect and following. Dewey is mistrusted by Republican leaders. But his gang-busting record of New York makes him acceptable to the rank and file of his party. Furthermore, that gang is mighty hungry after 12 years of Roosevelt and want a chance at the public feed trough. Both Roosevelt and Dewey are now said to be attempting to make love to leaders of their parties in order to square away for the mighty political slugfest which is in the making. There promises to be a mighty political battle of masterminds throughout the fall.

Donald Nelson is in a hot spot. He ordered that small factories which did not have war contracts, and others in which war contracts were being cancelled, should resume manufacture of civilian goods. The big industrial plants, in which war contracts take their full time, are opposed to such an order. They want to continue on war contracts as long as the war is on, and then be given an equal start on conversion to civilian goods. Nelson reasons that wide-spread unemployment will result by small plants being closed because of cancellation of their contracts, and at the same time civilians are deprived of needed goods. The result of this squabble will be followed with interest.

De Gaulle had several conferences with Roosevelt in Washington. To the surprise of everyone the two seemed to get along famously. However, the President refused to talk over the very ticklish question of De Gaulle's right of recognition as the French government. The President insists that the people of France have the right to select their own government. Until France is liberated there can be no choice. If the President told De Gaulle to go back and cooperate with General Eisenhower, instead of trying to block the efforts of Americans to free France, the conferences may prove of value.

Hitler's robot bombs are doing more damage than Churchill was willing to admit, according to informed observers. The bombs have killed more people than we lost in the invasion. The dead are helpless civilians —men, women and children. The destroyed property has no military value. Hitler is still a simpleton if he figures that he can break the English spirit. He has tried it several times without success. It is predicted that he is building larger and more effective bombs which he thinks are capable of wiping London off the map. Even this will not win the war for him.

Dr. George W. Truett is dead. He was one of the greatest preachers of his time and will go down in history as a great man. It was the pleasure of the Newsman to serve in France with the YMCA with Dr. Truett. We heard him preach to the soldiers of World War I, and to work with them. His soul was in his work, no matter the job. His life was dedicated to leaving the world better than he found it.

Butting into other people's business is not the way to use your head.

BLACK MARKETERS SENT TO JAIL

In the first five months of 1944, the Office of Price Administration Enforcement Program against the gasoline black market sent 28 car owners to jail, convicted 159 car owners of buying gasoline with counterfeit or stolen coupons or without coupons, took away rations from 775 car owners, suspended gasoline selling rights to 1,538 filling stations, put 156 filling stations out of business and gave jail sentences to 236 counterfeiters, peddlers and gasoline dealers.

FORMER FARMER SAVES THE DAY

A former Illinois farmer, a Sergeant, solved a transportation problem for his Marine buddies on Saipan, the Navy Department reports. It was impossible to haul much-needed ammunition up the rugged, steep hills by trucks and carry the wounded back. As the Sergeant suggested, a detail of Marines, who as civilians had handled live stock, were sent out to catch stray oxen. Within two hours they had a regular service into the hills using hand-made native two wheel carts drawn by the oxen. "The only trouble so far has been the oxen don't understand our language," the Sergeant said. "I'll bet they only understand those pesky Nips."

Restrictions remain on edible oil-seed meals.

FOR VETS—16,000 HOSPITAL BEDS

Sixteen thousand additional veterans' hospital beds in buildings to be constructed in 20 states have been recommended by the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs. Under this largest building program ever requested by the Veterans' Administration, the new beds would be located in hospitals in New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Delaware, Virginia, Florida, Michigan, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi or Alabama, Kansas or Missouri, Montana or North Dakota, Colorado, California, Texas, Washington, New York, Georgia, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Illinois. Addition of these beds would bring the total of 121,000 available to veterans.

THREE OUT OF FOUR WILL CAN

Three out of four women expect to can fruit and vegetables at home this season, according to a nation-wide survey reported by the Office of War Information. Canned peas, tomatoes and asparagus were restored to rationing by OPA after supplies on hand had sold rapidly, making room for the new pack. Civilian supplies of peas, tomatoes and asparagus are expected to be 20 per cent smaller during the current pack year than during the pack year ended July 1. To help pack the current fruit and vegetable crop, 700,000 full-time or 1,400,000 part-time workers must be recruited, the War Manpower Commission says. Because of the dependency of overseas service men on canned fruits and vegetables it is imperative that these foods be made available to them.

SWAP HELP ACROSS BORDER

Farmers are used to swapping help, but this summer two countries, the United States and Canada, will swap grain harvest help back and forth across the border, the U. S. Department of Agriculture announces. With border crossing formalities suspended, Canadian threshing outfits will help harvest the western great plains crops until September 15, and American machines and crews later will reciprocate in the Canadian prairie provinces until December 15.

ROUND-UP

Under new OPA instructions, the amount and type of gasoline rations issued to individuals after June 30 are now available to the public or newspapers upon inquiry to local Rationing Boards. . . . OPA has removed new innertubes from rationing, thus helping conserve tires, inasmuch as good tubes properly inflated prolong tire life. . . . Producers, carriers and handlers of farm products have been authorized and urged to form committees to assist Office of Defense Transportation District Managers in putting to full use all motor trucks available for transporting farm products, ODT says.

Dan Gillham Writes Former Teacher About Experiences In the Army

Dan Gillham, music major, 1943, who is now stationed in England, recently wrote Miss Jennie C. Ritchie, former principal of the Demonstration High School, about his Army experiences. His letter has so much charm and interest that it is printed almost in full. The letter dated May 28 follows:

"I had really a very pleasant stay at Kearns, Utah. The two snow covered mountain ranges — one being to the west and the other, which was quite majestic in size, to the east of the camp—were always a source of much pleasure to observe during the different types of weather. On a clear day, they stood beautifully against the blue sky with their irregular outline well pronounced. When there was a sunset, the western mountains merged into just an enormous silhouette, and the clouds above it—in the early stages of the sunset—were a clear vibrant orange. The effect was made still more exciting by the unusual coloring of the blue sky itself caused by the sun. It was a blue hard to put into words. By the time the sun had ceased to glow in the west and the stars had come out, the sky, from the bright beginning, had gradually displayed some of the most subtle colorings of any sunset I have seen. Since the mountains were always white, a snow storm had little effect on them, but you can be sure it had plenty upon the valley. For the first time I got to see some respectable snow storms that were quite uncompromising. Of course they were not record breakers for the country, but they pleased me.

"On a clear day, Salt Lake City could be seen indistinctly spread out upon the sloping ground that made the gentler incline of the eastern mountain range, which rose rather rapidly, a little beyond, to form a natural protective shelter for the city. These distant views of the city were about the only ones I unfortunately got to see of it. The exception was my seeing its very attractive railroad station. Even if I had gotten to really visit the city, some of its more famous buildings were closed because of the war and visitors were not allowed to enter them.

"After leaving Utah, I find myself in a country which I never dreamed would be my pleasure of visiitng and seeing—England. This land has truly some of the most picturesque countrysides of any place it has been my pleasure of seeing. The healthy rich green of the rolling meadows contrasting with a few newly plowed fields, these divided by a variety of trees and bushes—all often veiled in a light mist in the distance—just makes me want to stand and look for hours. Farmers in such a country must enjoy their occupation very much. Their neat little brick or stone farm houses add very attractive points of interest to the landscape.

"Since you have already seen England yourself, these few words I have written will help recall many pleasant memories to your mind I am sure."

Sgt. James Risner In Invasion Forces

The following are parts of letters from Sgt. James R. Risner, written to his father, Virgil Risner:

"I just want you to know that I am not afraid to do the thing I am about to do. If I should get lost, you can tell them all, that I was not afraid to give my life for my country and freedom for the ones left at hom. I ask you to pray for us boys. We need your prayers."

To His Father:

You ask me how I'm doing,
I'm not doing so bad—
And I'm a lucky fellow
To have you for a Dad.
I sure enjoy your letters,
So do my buddies here;
They help to bolster our Morale—
And bring a note of cheer.
It makes a lad feel manly,
And gives him added grit
To know he has a father
Who always does his bit.
Some day when I come home again
And grasp you by the hand
I'll be thinking of those letters
And say, "Dad, you were grand!"

Mr. Risner has received three letters written since the invasion.

Sgt. Risner is in the glider Infantry, and was with the first that went across the channel on D-Day.

WRONG WRIGHT

A merchant was called upon to defend a suit brought against him by a dissatisfied patron. Just before the conclusion of the proceedings, the merchant had to go on a trip to another state. Accordingly, he instructed his attorney to telegraph him when a decision had been reached by the judge trying the suit. When the merchant arrived he received a message from his lawyer, saying, "Right has triumphed."

Miss Annabella Johnson minced into the office of the leading colored lawyer in Jacksonville. "I wants to sue Henry Jackson for breach of promise, I do."

The lawyer nodded gravely, "An' what evidence have you dat he made love to you?"

"What evidence? Why, I got fo' worn-out sofa pillows, a broken-down sofa, an' a lamp dat won't light."

"I wrapped it as a gift."

"Now, tell me, what is the opposite to misery?"

"Happiness!" said the class in unison.

"And sadness?" she asked.

"Gladness."

"And the opposite of woe?"

"Giddap," shouted the enthusiastic class.

"By jove," said a stranger at a dance, "what a long and lanky girl that is over there!"

"Hush!" his host whispered. "She used to be long and lanky—but nowadays she's tall and stately. She's just inherited $100,000."

It's hardly reasonable to suppose that thousands of war workers on strike in this country are suffering from invasion jitters.

C. E. Strain is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ruth Liddle, at Tillamook, Wash.

ATTENTION! ALL HOME CANNERS

Before beginning your 1944 canning, Good Housekeeping Magazine advises you: use the boiling-water bath method for tomatoes and fruits, only. Can all vegetables except tomatoes by the correct use of a pressure cooker to be sure of killing botulinus germs. In the last few years, cases of botulinus food poisoning have cropped up in widely different parts of the country. Buy, borrow, share a pressure cooker—but don't can low-acid vegetables any other way. If you want further information, write Good Housekeeping Magazine, 959 Eight Avenue, New York 19, New York.

HOLLAND-McDONALD RITES READ IN AMARILLO JULY 3

Miss Mabel Holland and Lt. Col. Thomas H. McDonald were married July 3 in the parsonage of the First Baptist church in Amarillo.

The couple left after the ceremony on a trip to points in Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, and South Carolina. After July 11, the couple will be at home at 481 East Main Street, Spartanburg, S. C.

Mrs. McDonald is a graduate of Ward-Belmont College in Nashville, Tennessee. She is a partner in the Harry Holland Men's Furnishing's Store in Amarillo.

Col. McDonald, former member of Amarillo High School faculty, from 1929-32 principal of Canyon High School, and a graduate of W. T., has been in the infantry in North Africa. He commanded the Third Battalion of the 142nd at the landing of Salerno September 9, 1943. He was awarded the Purple Heart for injuries received that day, and he also received the Silver Star for gallantry in action at Salerno. He returned to the States in March of this year and was in the Ashford General Hospital in West Virginia until May 8. He is now with the Sixth Infantry Training Regiment at Camp Croft, S. C.

Colonel and Mrs. McDonald plan to make their home in Amarillo after the war.

Miss Nancy Strain Takes Welfare Post

Miss Nancy Strain, daughter of H. S. Strain, began work as the new Child Welfare Worker in Potter County Thursday.

Miss Strain is a graduate of Canyon High School, winner of the coveted Balfour Plaque in her senior year, and is also a graduate of West Texas State College, where she was a prominent student.

For four or five summers she was a councellor in the Life's Girl Camp at Sussex, N. J., working under Miss Lois Goodrich a former teacher while she was in Canyon High School.

Miss Strain taught in the Amarillo Public Schools until May, 1943, when she went to Austin with the State Child Welfare Association. At the end of the summer she was selected to be sent to the University of Southern California, Los Angeles, for a year's special training in Child Welfare. Amarillo is her first assignment since her return.

Hints Are Given on Home Laundry

A box of gelatin may have a place with your home laundry aids, as well as in your kitchen.

Gelatin is a good remedy for rayon dresses that become limp and wrinkle easily after washing. Lou Ella Patterson, County Home Demonstration Agent, says the process is simple: Just dip the dress in a gelatin and water solution.

Starching is not successful with most rayon fabrics, Miss Patterson explains, but plain, granulated gelatin, softened and when disolved in water likely will give the needed "body" or filling. The amount of gelatin used will depend on the stiffness desired, but usually two tablespoons should be enough. You might use less for sheer rayon.

Here are the directions: First, soak the gelatin a few minutes in a little cold water, then dissolve with boiling water. Pour the solution in a bowl large enough to hold the dress and add enough cold water to be comfortable for your hands. After the dress is washed and rinsed, dip it in the gelatin solution and squeeze it gently. Then roll the dress in a thick bath towel until it is dry enough to iron. Finally, remembor that ironing rayon requires low heat.

More History of Churches in City Is Disclosed

In the fall of 1910 when the West Texas State Teachers College was begun, the reverent authorities, who were planning the great college that was to be, laid plans for the Christian work.

Miss Mary E. Hudspeth was the first leader of the Y. W. C. A. and she was on the advisory board almost to the end of her life. The Y. W. C. A. met many times in her beautiful home. The cabinets of the Y. W. have shared in many sacred plans.

At one time the Association handled over a thousand dollars in a single year. It never accented money more than spirit, and after that year never handled any very great sum. The plan was for it to be great in service—in Christian Character. The regional director of the movement always held Canyon as a cherished place to visit.

Miss Abbie Graham, Miss Vera Edds and another Miss Graham were secretaries. Miss Adeline Lamb, Miss Ruth Lowes and Dr. Mattie Swayne served long and efficiently as sponsors. The Y. W. C. A. breakfast held annually at Homecoming in Miss Hudspeth's home, is one of the most treasured memories of many a Y. W. worker.

At present the S. C. A.—an association of both men and women, is functioning under the wise leadership of Dr. A. Kirk Knott. It is the lineal descendant of the cherished Y. W. C. A., the only society or organization on the campus dating from the foundation of the college itself.

Visiting with Mrs. Herschel Jennings last week were her two brothers, E. R. Duke from Dallas and Capt. H. E. Duke from Ft. Benning, Ga., and her sister, Mrs. C. Durward Kelly and Charlotte from Grand Island, Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cravy from Post, Texas are visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. G. Brant and family. Opal Joyce Brant will go home with her grandparents for a visit.

Directors Meeting

ground sufficient stone to finish the building. Brick, sand and gravel, and $7,000 in cash are ready to start construction when the war is over.

Dr. Sheffy states that 356,554 persons have registered at the museum, and thousands of visitors failed to register.

He reviewed the collections which had been placed in the museum. The latest big gift is that of O. T. Nickelson of Shamrock, who will place his famous collection of guns in the museum when there is proper place prepared for them. This is said to be one of the finest collections of guns in the nation. Mr. Nickelson has spent his life and thousands of dollars in gathering this collection.

Floyd Studer discussed the scientific phase of the museum. There is no other place like the museum for study, and thousands of school children come to the museum every year to learn of the early history of the Panhandle. He quoted from authorities who stated that the Southwest was unequalled as a field for scientific study. Only a small part of the collected materials are on display in the museum.

Hermon Pipkin of Amarillo outlined the changes made in the constitution and presented a list of men to be voted upon for the executive committee. Other names were added from the floor, and the election was held.

John McCarty called upon the new directors to go back home to get new members; collect museum material and encourage children to write on historical subjects. When the building is started each director will be asked to assist in raising funds to finish the construction.

Judge H. E. Hoover, past president, is seriously ill, and the directors sent a message of sympathy to him. Messages were also sent to Mr. Nickelson and Judge Hamlin.

W. H. Patrick pointed out the need of adequate road signs over the Panhandle directing traffic to the museum after the war. The Canyon Chamber of Commerce has had this as one of its objectives.

The following directors attended the meeting:

R. T. Alexander, Canadian; George Autry, Amarillo; Kenneth Bain, Floydada; C. D. Bird, Matador; A. E. Boyd, Plainview; M. K. Brown, Pampa; C. P. Buckler, Pampa; H. D. Bugbee, Clarendon; C. R. Burrow, Canyon.

J. T. Christian, Claude; W. T. Coble, Amarillo, Woods Coffee, Jr., Silverton; John O. Colquitt, Dalhart; Mel B. Davis, Pampa; J. C. Estlack, Clarendon; Wiley Fox, Dumas; J. Evetts Haley, Spearman; Newton Harrell, Claude.

E. W. Hardin, Amarillo; C. M. Henderson, Farwell; J. A. Hill, Canyon; Winfield Holbrook, Plainview; R. D. Holt, Wheeler; John L. McCarty, Amarillo; R. F. McCasland, Tulia.

George W. McDonald, Plainview; J. C. Mapes, Dimmitt; Douglas Meador, Matador; A. A. Meredith, Borger; W. J. Miller, Spearman; H. Y. Overstreet, Farwell; W. H. Patrick, Clarendon; Royal Pendleton, Stratford; S. R. Pinkston, Wellington.

H. C. Pipkin, Amarillo; T. Wade Potter, Littlefield; Rex Rodgers, Tulia; L. F. Sheffy, Canyon; C. R. Stahl, Borger; Van W. Stewart, Perryton; Floyd V. Studer, Amarillo.

Cecil H. Tate, Muleshoe; Frank M. Tatum, Dalhart; Alex O. Thompson, Hereford; W. P. Walker, Crosbyton; Clyde W. Warwick, Canyon; J. C. Wester, Floydada; S. B. Whittenburg, Amarillo.

Directors who have accepted, but were not present:

C. F. Burnett, Miami; E. A. Carlock, Paducah; J. R. Collard, Spearman; J. M. Crews, Childress; Frank Day, Plainview; Hugh Doak, Claude; O. A. Finch, Dalhart; H. E. Hoover, Canadian; Herbert Hilburn, Plainview; Frank P. Hill, Tahoka.

Pvt. Leroy Wooten Praises Red Cross

Pvt. Leroy Wooten, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wooten, has landed in England with American troops.

He makes two observations in his first letters to his parents: That the Red Cross is doing a magnificient work among the men in service; and that Americans know nothing about rationing as compared with the English people. He recited the small amount of foods and wearing apparel which are allowed the English under the rationing system.

Leroy praises the food which is being served our troops in England.

SOME TRADE

A farmer, paying his first visit to the seashore, asked a boatman if he could buy some of the water to take home to show his wife.

The boatman assented and charged the farmer a quarter.

A few hours later the visitor returned to the shore. By now the tide had gone out, and the man gazed open-mouthed at the spectacle.

"By cracky, mister" he said, "you have done a good business today."

COMPETITION

"We give a packet of flower seeds with every plant."

His competitor across the street promptly sought to meet the competition by placing in his window the following announcement:

"We give the earth with every plant."

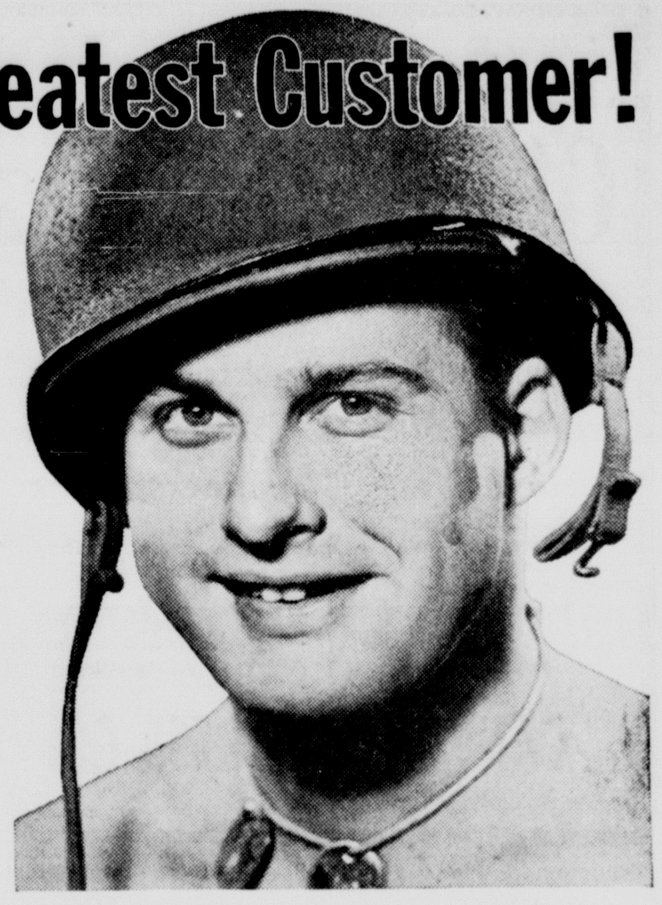
"Daddy," queried the son, "what is the person called who brings you in contact with the spirity world?"

"A bartender, my son," replied the father.

The mountain regions of the northwestern United States contain more extinct volcanoes than any other equal area in the world.

World's Greatest Customer!

G. I. Joe



EVERY HOME FRONT SHORTAGE stems from the needs of our Armed Forces . . . now in action or ready to fight in 65 different countries or islands around the world.

Symbol of our millions under arms, G. I. Joe is the world's greatest, most-deserving, high-priority customer.

As evidence of his tremendous consuming capacity, consider the fact that every day, 60,000,000 gallons of petroleum products go to our Armed Forces.

Let the figures sink in: 60,000,000 gallons a day! No wonder there is concern not only about current supply, but also about the nation's petroleum reserves.

With the same initiative and energy, which prompted its long peacetime research for new and better things from petroleum gases as well as from petroleum, Phillips is now actively engaged in speeding up production and discovering new sources of crude supply.

At every well, in every refinery, in every production unit, the spirit is: "Leave nothing undone which might contribute to an earlier victory." Twenty-four hours a day, Phillips best efforts are devoted to the production of petroleum products for the war effort: gasoline, lubricants, fuel oils, 100-octane, butadiene, and other synthetic chemicals.

That is why we say, every time you see the Phillips 66 Shield, let it remind you that Phillips great refineries are gigantic chemical plants pouring out weapons for victory.

Annual Picnic Is Held at Student Union Last Night

With visiting and retired faculty members and the wives of former faculty members as special guests the faculty held its annual summer picnic last night in the Student Union Room.

The affair had been planned to take place in the garden of President and Mrs. J. A. Hill but the heavy rain caused a change of plans. Approximately 130 people enjoyed the occasion. Arrangements were made by a committee of faculty wives.

STRANGER

Madam, you'll have to pay for that boy.

But I never have before.

That doesn't matter to me. He's over 12 years old, and you'll have to pay his fare or I'll put him off the car.

Put him off! What do I care? I never saw him before!

FRIENDS

The pastor had just returned from a visit abroad, and a big crowd had collected to meet him. Beaming with pleasure, the good man got up to speak.

"My dear friends," he started, "I will not call you ladies and gentlemen, because I know you too well."

"Does your husband talk in his sleep?"

"No, and it's awful exasperating. He only smiles."

The normal pressure of the air at sea level is 14.7 pounds per square inch or more than 2,100 pounds per square foot.

GAVE HIM THE WORKS

The new office boy had been instructed how to answer callers. Just before noon a man asked, "Is the boss in?"

"Are you a salesman, a bill collector or a friend of his?" the boy inquired.

"All three," was the answer.

"Well, he's in a business conference. He's out of town. Step in and see him.

DELAYED

Grandpappy Morgan, a hillbilly of the Ozarks, had wandered off into the woods and failed to return for supper, so young Tolliver was sent to look for him. He found him standing in the bushes.

"Getting dark, Grandpap," the tot ventured.

"Yep."

"Suppertime, Grandpap."

"Yep."

"Ain't ye hungry?"

"Yep."

"Well, air ye comin' home?"

"Nope."

"Why ain't ye?"

"Standin' in a b'ar trap."

67 Graduate Students Here

Three States and Twenty-one Counties Are Represented

One of the questions commonly asked on the college campus is "Where are you from?" In answering this question, the graduates and post graduate students of West Texas State, summer 1944, would name Oklahoma, New Mexico, Illinois, and 22 counties of Texas as their home addresses. Twenty-seven different cities and towns are represented by the 67 graduate students.

Amarillo, Potter County, leads in number with Virginia McQuirk, May Belle Oakes, Ethel G. Peterson, Mary Ruth Pittman, Ruth King Reisdorph, Mabel Rodgers, Mary Ruff, Robert Barry Scott, James Chat Sells,Vera May Winter, Lois Allen, Naomi Allison, Icy V. Bond, Virginia Waldron Brainerd, Benjamin Hinton Brown, Valice Dixie Bryan, Frank M. Bushnell, Marguerite Cleghorn, Gracie Williams Cockrell, Maud Fletcher, Lual G. Frady, Gladys M. Glenn, Thomas B. Haynie, Merlin E. Jacobson, Margaret Josserand, William Raymond Kaufman, Jr., Edward P. Kijenski, Harold Ross Larsen, John P. McLaughlin, Mary Martin, Rachel Ruth Milan, and Jewell McCaskill.

Friona, Parmer County has three, O. B. Ginn, Ura Ginn, and Opal Lewellen.

Vega, Oldham County, has C. R. Brown, and Clarence Howell, and Happy, Swisher County has R. T. Moudy and Cora Bell Roberts.

There is one graduate student from each of seventeen other Texas counties. They are Bailey County, Mary Elizabeth Woodley, Muleshoe; Carson County, Lula Margaret Johnson, Groom; Clay County, Wilma Baber, Wichita Falls; Cooke County, Thomas Harris, Gainesville; Coryell County, Margaret Elliott, Spur; Donley County, Ray Robbins, Pampa; Hale County, Frances Phillips, Hale Center; Hutchinson County, Norman Whisenand, Borger; Johnson County, Nan Dolphy, Cleburne; Lubbock County, Mary Lou Roberson, Lubbock; Lynn County, Thelma Parker, O'Donnell; Moore County, Ragnwald Fowler, Dumas; Ochiltree County, Maurice Graves, Perryton; Tarrant County, M. S. Brooks, Ft. Worth; Wichita County, Earl Ferguson, Electra.

Fartherest from her home address is Mrs. Dorothy Jones Kelly, Chicago, Illinois. Oklahoma sends two students, Sara Duke of Frederick, and Jewell Woodward of Felt. New Mexico also has two, Walter Parker, San Jon, and Velma Dawn, Tucumcari.

The graduate students through the graduate club and through their individual activities are furnishing much work and lively ideas for college life generally.

V-NEWS

Now that many fresh vegetables are available, we are urged to make use of them not only because of their appetite appeal but also because of their nutrients. Fresh fruits and vegetables are especially valued for their minerals and vitamins which help to keep us well and vigorous. Since some of this food value is often lost in the preparation of the food for the table, it would be wise from the standpoints of health and time saving to serve much of it raw. Those vegetables which are less edible in the raw state, we may want to cook; others we cook for the sake of variety. Heat, air, and water are all enemies of certain of the vitamins and minerals; hence these rules should be remembered in preparing fruits and vegetables:

Prepare as short a time in advance of use as possible.

Cook in the skin when feasible; when the vegetable must be cut, leave pieces as large as can be cooked in the time available. The less surface exposed to water, the less the loss of food value.

Cook only until tender — not mushy; excess cooking destroys vitamins.

Except for strong vegetables such as onions and cabbage or greens, use a very small amount of water and cover the pan closely to speed cooking; freedom from air and short cooking periods help retain foodstuffs.

Serve the vegetable liquor which remains with the vegetable or use it in soups or gravies; some vitamins and minerals are readily dissolved in the water.

Select fresh, properly matured vegetables to begin with; both food value and flavor are best then.

Except for a few discoveries of single diamonds, the only source of these stones ni the United States, is in Pike County, Arkansas, where since 1906 more than 2,000 crystals have been found.

Ballett Dancer Presents Program of Dances With Words and Music

On July 14, Ruth Page will present her new program of Dances With Words and Music at West Texas State College.

Miss Page, who made her first important appearance with the Chicago Opera Company, has spent two years on Broadway as principal dancer of Irvin Berlin's "Music Box Revue." She has studied under the direction of Adolph Bolm, Eric DeLamarter, and Nicholas Remisoff.

In 1934, Miss Page became the Ballet Director of the revived Chicago Grand Opera Company, and continued to serve as director and premiere danseuse in 1935-36-37.

Students will be admitted on their activity tickets. Adults may purchase tickets at the door for $1.00, and children for 50c.

Now— cooking is more of a science than ever!

Good cooking, always an art, has become truly a science now—under the pressures of wartime food needs on fighting and home fronts.

There is today greater knowledge of food values and better knowledge of the effect on food values of proper cooking procedures, largely effected by modern Gas cooking equipment with far better controls.

This new slant on food and cooking has not been lost on the home front, either—and therein may be a fact which will have a bearing on your own peacetime business.

Keep yourself informed on new developments in Gas cooking equipment.

Entering the lobby of the Algerita Inn at Post, I was startled to see a lean, mean-looking cat—the biggest cat I'd ever seen—peering at me from behind a post. Then I realized that it was a wildcat that had been stuffed. The lobby of the picturesque inn is adorned with eagles, owls and other examples of the taxidermist's art. Incidentally, the Algerita was built by the late C. W. Post, the cerial king.

A man with newspaper experience is a candidate for the State Supreme Court—Col. Gordon Simpson of Tyler, veteran of World Wars I and II. His grandparents came to Texas by ox wagon before the Civil War. Born 50 years ago in Gilmer, Simpson attended Baylor and the University of Texas, receiving his law degree after he had entered the Army in 1917, attending Leon Springs' first officers' training camp.

After the armistice, the young lieutenant engaged briefly in the cotton business in Dallas and El Paso; then began the practice of law in Tyler, at that time a serene little city in the cotton country, so the attorney supplemented his income by serving as correspondent for big city papers, writing up fires, killings and other local events.

Simpson served two years in the legislature, then was district judge, a position his father once had held. When oil was struck in East Texas, Simpson's law practice grew rapidly and he has had a large appellate practice, including the Supreme Court of the United States.

Recognized for ability and character by his fellow lawyers, Simpson was elected director of the State Bar Association, chairman of the board and, in 1942, president. He found time to serve as Smith County Fair president and as teacher of a Men's Bible Class.

With the entry of the United States into World War II, Colonel Simpson bade fairewell to his wife and daughters to re-enter the army and has been overseas 10 months. The Smith County man's name was filed as a candidate for the State Supreme Court by friends.

90 Freshmen In College

Largest Summer Freshman Class In Several Years

There are ninety freshmen enrolled in college this summer. This is the largest number of freshmen that has been on the campus in the summer in many years.

The freshmen come from fifty-one different towns in five different states. Other than Canyon, Friona has the largest number in the class with five, and Bovina, Friona's neighboring town, runs a close second with four.

According to the list, Metz La-Follette of San Diego, California, is the greatest distance from home.

Through their own efforts, and with the assistance of Dr. A. K. Knott, dean of the lower division, and chairman of the college counselling committe , the freshman class is doing good work and its members are having their full share of fun. Their picnic held on the campus June 29, helped them get acquainted with each other and put them in a spirit to enjoy the week-end holiday which followed.

Reading the names of freshman students as they appear in the directory which was published in the last issue of The Prairie, will reveal that their names are representative of a good cross section of American life. Evident in the names in ancestry that is English, Irish, French, Scotch, and German.

Swimming Pool Open to Students And Townspeople

The college swimming pool is now open many hours each week for students, faculty, townspeople, and their friends. All persons who hold activity tickets may use the swimming pool as much as they wish free of charge if they have health certificates. The certificates may be had from the college physician, Dr. R. P. Jarrett. Students can get them at the college health center during the hours the physician is there. Students who have had the college physical examination may get the health certificate during office hours of the college nurse, Miss Hellen Hickman. Persons other than college students may get their health certificates from a physician.

College students, 4:30-5:30, Tuesday, and Saturday.

Both college and public may swim on Saturday from 2:30-4:30, and from 7:00-9:00, Wednesday and and Friday from 7:00-9:00, and on Sunday from 2:30-4:30.

In Texas they like their liquor straight. A certain old-timer was invited to take a drink. He hesitated for a moment and then consented with this understanding: "I will providing you blindfold me and hold my nose." His friend, being somewhat taken back by such a request, asked why the special provision. The old-timer snapped back with this reply: "'cause if I see it or smell it my mouth will water and I don't want to dilute it! I want it straight."

Actually, the war right now is at its most critical stage—which is just why our men need your support as never before, why they need you to help pay for the mass of materials of all kinds that will bring crushing defeat to our enemies that much sooner!

Of course, you have just done your part in the Fifth War Loan Drive—but they have done theirs in many a grim, bloody battle and they aren't resting on what they've done before! They are carrying the fight to the enemy wherever they can reach him, every day—and your dollars are needed every day, too!

Surely you won't stop buying—won't let up now—when the chips are down!

5 MORE REASONS for Keeping Up Your Bond Buying

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the war.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

Canning Sugar Is Available for a Second Time

A second period for the issuance of home canning sugar which will run from July 1 to December 1 of this year has been announced by OPA.

"The purpose of this second period is to take care of late fruits available for canning. If you have already received sugar for home canning during the first period and can establish eligibility for additional sugar, application may be made to your War Price and Rationing Board for it," states OPA.

If you did not apply during the first period for the first allotment, you may apply now and attach to your application spare stamp No. 37 for each member of your household for which you are applying. Failure to apply during the first period will not prohibit your receiving the maximum amount granted for home canning if you can establish eligibility for all of it.

Stars and Stripes From Italy Sent By Lt. Roland Black

The News has received a copy of the daily Stars and Stripes, Mediterranean, from Lt. Roland S. Black. The issue was published June 26. It was Vol. 1, No. 18, published in Rome.

One department is of unusual interest, indicating the Democratic spirit of our civilian army. "Mail Call" is the letters from the readers. Soldier writers criticize the conduct of Americans in Rome; blast an Oklahoma woman for cartoons used by the publication; and term a "raw deal" the treatment given GIs when officers drank beer which the writers declare was intended for the men.

In what other army in the world would such criticism by buck privates of officers be tolerated?

Hill Boys Met in France Following the Invasion

Cpl. Billy Hill in the 90th Div. Inf. 357 Co. and Pvt. Marvin Hill, Inf. Replacement, brothers of Mrs. Clay Cooper, met in France four miles behind the front, to see each other for the first time in more than a year.

Cpl. Hill had been in England for some time but the boys had been unable to get together while they were there.

Cpl. Hill was in the invasion unit as Pvt. Hill was crossing the channell with his replacement unit he was assigned to the identical company in which his brother was assigned. They met as the replacement group met the 357th Co. on its relief return from the front.
